

NEWS RELEASE

Congratulations to the award winners in the 105th “The Legacy Continues” exhibit at the Neville Public Museum!

Green Bay, WI - January 23, 2020 - Six regional artists received Artistic Merit Awards at the Green Bay Art Colony’s 105th exhibition “The Legacy Continues” at the Neville Public Museum.

This years Juror was Stephanie Trenchard of Popelka Trenchard Glass in Sturgeon Bay. Stephanie has a notable history in the fine arts field with multiple awards for her art glass and oil paintings. Along with her husband, artist Jeremy Popelka, the couple owns and operates a working glass studio and gallery in Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin – since 1997. It was an honor to have her jury our show this year. We continued our People’s Choice voting this year and attendees of the reception had the opportunity to vote on all entries in the show. Congratulations to everyone!

Main exhibit award winners for this year were:

- 1st Place – Karen Kjell for her ceramic sculpture “Miss Chief”
- 2nd Place – Daniela Kouzov for her ceramic piece “Large Contemporary Textured Bowl”
- 3rd Place – Cynthia Tumpach for her oil painting “Pine Tree Road”

Honorable Mentions – Teresa Gifford for her art quilt “Homesick”
Shanna Koltz for her photo illustration “Love Sick”

People’s Choice – Carol Weinhauer for her watercolor on black paper “Midnight Run”

1st Place – Karen Kjell

2nd Place – Daniela Kouzov

3rd Place – Cynthia Tumpach

Honorable Mentions – Teresa Gifford & Shanna Koltz

People’s Choice – Carol Weinhauer

